

COMMITTEE FOR ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT

444 MADISON AVENUE, NEW YORK 22, NEW YORK

January 14, 1958

Dear Mr. Dulles:

Thank you very much for your letter and the manuscript you enclosed.

Unfortunately, the speed with which we had to proceed with the publication of the November 21 proceedings was such that the printer couldn't wait for your material. In fact, the galley proofs of the book are already in the hands of book reviewers.

The proceedings are being published by Doubleday under the title, "Soviet Progress Versus American Enterprise," and will be in the bookstores in the first week of February. I hope you share our feeling that the factual information about Soviet competition presented at that meeting is something that a great many more Americans ought to know about. We will see that you get a copy of the book when it is available.

With many thanks for your efforts to cooperate -- and understanding thoroughly your reasons for restraint --

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in ink, appearing to read "John H. Crider".

John H. Crider
Deputy Director of Information
